journey to the web

网游记

A FILM BY M6Y

when magic meets technology, danger is just one click away...

On their journey to seek the sacred scriptures, Tang Seng and his three disciples discover that their magical world is under attack. A mysterious "White Bone Virus" is stealing accounts, hacking systems, and spreading through clever online tricks.

From fake rewards to scam links and dangerous websites, the team must learn to recognise cyber threats and protect themselves.

Can they defeat the virus and restore balance?

A fun and educational adventure that teaches young learners how to stay safe online.

Inspired by the classic Chinese story "The Three Battles with the White Bone Demon" from "Journey to the West".
